JOHNSON NAMED MISS SHELTON STATE

Shelton State sophomore Diahn Johnson was named the 1988 winner of the Miss Shelton State Pageant held recently at the college. As Miss Shelton State, Johnson will receive a number of gifts, prizes, scholarships and the right to represent the college in the Miss Alabama Pageant scheduled for June in Birmingham.

The winner of the state pageant will travel to Atlantic City, New Jersey, in August to compete for Miss America.

A graduate of Airline High School in Bossier City, La, Johnson is a member of the Shelton Singers and attends Shelton on a Performing Arts Scholarship. She was second runner-up in the 1987 pageant. Johnson is the daughter of Ray and Carmen Johnson of Tuscaloosa.

First runner-up in the pageant was Dana Hamner, daughter of Myra and David Hamner of Northport. She is also a member of the Shelton Singers and plans to transfer to UAB next year and become a physical therapist. She is a graduate of Tuscaloosa County High School.

Monica Gaines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S.N. Gaines of Northport, was named second runner-up. She is a graduate of Tuscaloosa County High School and a member of the Afro-American Cultural Association at Shelton State.

The daughter of Jerry and Jean Taylor of Northport, Stacy Wynette Crowell was named third runner-up in the pageant. Crowell attends Shelton on a Performing Arts Scholarship and recently place second in a national contemporary Christian music contest singing a song from an album she had made.

Fourth runner-up in the contest was Linda Hill, a student majoring in cosmetology at the Technical Division of the college. The daughter of Gary and Judy Hill, she is a graduate of Tuscaloosa County High School in Northport.

CONGRESSMAN CLAUDE HARRIS TO SPEAK AT SHELTON AWARDS BANQUET

Congressman Claude Harris, D-Ala., will be the guest speaker at the Shelton State Foundation Awards Banquet scheduled for Saturday, March 5, at 7 p.m. at Indian Hills Country Club. The banquet will recognize those who have supported the college during the recent three-year campaign. A cash bar will open at 6 p.m. with dinner at 7 p.m. Tickets to the banquet must be purchased by Wednesday, March 2. To purchase tickets or for more information, contact Lucy Kubiszyn at the junior college.

SHELTON FACULTY ATTEND REGIONAL CONFERENCE

THREE FACULTY MEMBERS FROM SHELTON'S JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION recently returned from the Southeast Conference on Teaching English in the Two-Year College which was held in Louisville, Kentucky. Katherine Alexander presented a paper on her life writing program at the college. Dr. Joyce Jolly, Alabama's State Representative, served on the executive committee, and Sharon Deck was the presider at a major session on developmental English.

Ms. Alexander's presentation was well received and the president of the Southeast Conference on English in the Two-Year College requested she submit a proposal to be part of the 1989 program.

OF GENERAL INTEREST.....Several members of the Shelton family recently had children tapped for the Junior National Honor Society at Eastwood Middle School. Children recognized were Cary Deck, Allison Dohrman, Stephanie Freeman, Ann Mallory, and Krissie Kubiszyn.
